

Hiring a Chef

John Green

The following list provides some information about John Green:

- restaurant cook for 12 years
- specializes in Italian cuisine
- managed family restaurant
- trained by popular American chef
- works well with others
- won Chicago's best pizza award
- has violated food sanitation regulations

Lisa Taylor

The following list provides some information about Lisa Taylor:

- 7 years professional experience
- combines several international cooking styles
- specializes in vegetarian menus
- studied cooking in India
- calm under pressure
- writes for cooking magazine
- argues with customers frequently

Hiring a Chef

Maria Milton

The following list provides some information about Maria Milton:

- hotel cook for 8 years
- blends Latin and American flavors
- has planned menus for hospitals
- certified nutritionist
- accommodates special orders
- author of best-selling cookbook
- consistently exceeds budget

Mark Stevens

The following list provides some information about Mark Stevens:

- restaurant chef for 10 years
- specializes in French cuisine
- has worked in three countries
- studied in famous culinary school
- uses only local ingredients
- voted best chef in Boston
- criticized for being slow

Hiring a Chef

Jessie Smith

The following list provides some information about Jessie Smith:

- steakhouse cook for 13 years
- focuses on traditional American cooking
- experience cooking for large gatherings
- good customer relations
- skilled baker
- won 2 cooking competitions
- changes jobs frequently

Ken Johnson

The following list provides some information about Ken Johnson:

- head chef for 9 years
- specializes in seafood
- instructor at local culinary school
- trained in Japan
- arranges food artistically for serving
- featured on TV cooking program
- won't work Fridays

Choosing a Technology Upgrade

Laptops

The following list provides some information about the laptops:

- easy access to online information
- each student gets a laptop
- wide variety of educational software
- costs $600 per device
- need replacing every 5 years
- already familiar to most students
- may disrupt classes

Language Lab

The following list provides some information about the language lab:

- students can access authentic materials
- makes languages come to life
- helps teach foreign languages
- costs $25,000
- requires regular maintenance
- convenient and comfortable
- students may illegally download material

Choosing a Technology Upgrade

Computer Lab

The following list provides some information about the computer lab:

- very helpful for group projects
- fast and powerful computers
- teachers can easily demonstrate technology
- one-time cost of $50,000
- useful for many years
- tech support available
- limited availability

Video Cameras

The following list provides some information about the video cameras:

- students learn to make films
- encourages creative thinking
- teachers can motivate learners
- costs $300 per video camera
- three-year warranty
- some camera functions are complex
- students might misuse cameras

Choosing a Technology Upgrade

Projectors

The following list provides some information about the projectors:

- can show videos and photos
- visual aid supports learning
- require less photocopying
- $500 per classroom
- last for years
- connect easily to multiple devices
- projectors often overheat

E-Readers

The following list provides some information about the e-readers:

- easy access to many textbooks
- compact and lightweight
- greater variety of class activities
- costs $200 per device
- must replace regularly
- devices can be used anywhere
- often lost or stolen